475-27½-New. Where the secretary of war granted a permit authorizing diversion solely for the purpose of removing sewage and for incidental power purposes under specified conditions, it has been held that, in so far as the diversion was not for the purpose of maintaining navigation in the Chicago River, it was without a legal basis, and will be enjoined. 278US367, 49SCt163, 73L ed426.

475-27¼-New. A permit, given by the secretary of war to the sanitary district of Chicago, authorizing diversion of water from Lake Michigan for sanitary purposes, under conditions specified, is held not to give states other than Illinois any rightful interest in the maintenance of the diversion in interest of navigation of the Mississippi River or interstate commerce. 278US367, 49SCt163, 73L ed426.

475-27½-New. Where facts showed that a ditch constructed by riparian owners to lower the level of a lake did not enter the lake but began one thousand eight hundred feet from it, and that the water could get into the ditch only by flowing out of the lake into a bayou, the bayou was thus an outlet. 179Ark102, 14SW(2d)1101.

475-27½-New. Constructing a ditch by a riparian owner, for protection of lands against flood waters, lowering the level of the lake, is proper under the statute. 179Ark102, 14SW(2d)1101 (not below normal level).
